"Pinot Noir is a minx of a wine. Indubitably feminine alas, if not exactly female, this is an exasperating variety for growers, winemakers and winedrinkers alike. It leads us a terrible dance, tantalizing with an occasional glimpse of the riches in store for those who persevere, yet obstinately refusing to be tamed." Jancis Robinson

Pierre-Yves Colin-Morey & Caroline Morey

Pierre-Yves Colin is one of the new generation rockstars in modern day Burgundy. His wines have stormed onto the scene and have shown why he is truly one of the rising stars throughout France. Learning his craft while running his father's domaine, Marc Colin, he and his wife Caroline Morey set out in 2001 as a micro-negociant under their "PYCM" label. Caroline, the daughter of Jean-Marc Morey, also has great experience learned from many years under her father's tutoring. With the 2014 vintage she inherited many holdings from her father. A marriage of two great families in Burgundy, the Colins and the Moreys, has lead to one of the most promising domaines in recent history. We invite you to experience for yourself!
